Message Theme & Prayer Focus

The Abrahamic Covenant

"Father God, thank you for your revelation in this message. I know you hold all truth, power, and authority in your hands, and I'm so thankful to receive it all as your child. Thank you for showing me the way I should go by your Holy Spirit, and I submit myself to that path daily. I love you, Lord, and I know that you're with me every step of the way. You truly are good, I receive your new mercies every morning, and your enduring love forever, in Jesus' name. Amen!"

Key Concepts/Truths

Christianity is a kingdom. Jesus taught us to pray that God's Kingdom come, that His will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven.

Our prayers are powerful, effective, and have influence over what Heaven does on Earth. Jesus said what we bind and loose on Earth determines what Heaven is going to do about it.

God can do exceedingly abundantly more than all we can ask, think, or imagine, but it is done according to His power that works in us.

Faith is the currency of the Kingdom. When we believe, we will receive.

As we are Christ's, every promise that God made in His covenant to Abraham, he also made to us.

What we have is not ours due to good or bad behavior modification, it is ours because of God's promise to each of us.

God swore an oath by His own self that He would give Abraham, as well as his earthly and spiritual descendants, incredible blessings because of Abraham's willingness to sacrifice his son, Isaac.

God has promised us that we can be certain He will not only never leave us nor forsake us, but that He will make good on all of His promises to us for life, freedom, health, provision, and so much more. God is for us!

Which one truth is the most challenging or least existing in your life today? Why do you think this is? Ask the Lord if there are any beliefs or barriers that are keeping you from believing that particular truth. Write it out.

Daily Application

God swore an oath by His own name to Abraham that He would be true and keep His word on all of His promises. With that being true, why do we doubt anything that He says in His word? Maybe we don't fully doubt it, but we forget about it. We focus on the business of life, we live like other things are more important, or as if He didn't literally just call us heirs to His promise. What would it look like for us to wake up every morning remembering the oath that God swore to us? It would change our perspective, which would change our world.

Take the next week to dedicate time as you wake up to thank God for His promises. The things we focus on become magnified and larger in our sight. It's truly life changing to have God's promises in your sight every morning. It puts our vision into alignment with God's, our heart into sync with His, and our being in oneness and resolution with His. Since we are Christ's, we are heirs according to God's promise, and that's something to thank Him for every moment of the day.

This Week's Declarations

"I am a child of God, not because of any work or behavior that I have done, but because of His great love and mercy for me. I accept my rightful place as an heir to the promise that He made to Abraham and I receive all that is mine because of it. I have life, health, provision, and guidance by God's Holy Spirit within me to be more than a conqueror over the devil because of His love for me.

I know that I am seated in a Heavenly position that no man or devil can undo, and I lean into God's plan for my life. It is a plan to lead me, to prosper me, to give me a hope and a future, and to bring Him glory through it all. I am done blaming God and waiting for Him to do what He has already done and now calls me to do. I walk in the authority that He has given me as an heir with Christ and I receive all that He has promised me, in Jesus' name!"

What's Next?

Now it's time to write down anything that the Lord has spoken to you. Praise Him, Thank Him and ask the Holy Spirit to help you walk this out.

Galatians 3:15-18 NKJV

Brethren, I speak in the manner of men: Though it is only a man’s covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no one annuls or adds to it. Now to Abraham and his Seed were the promises made. He does not say, “And to seeds,” as of many, but as of one, “And to your Seed,” who is Christ.

For when God made a promise to Abraham, because He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself, saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you." And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. For men indeed swear by the greater, and an oath for confirmation is for them an end of all dispute.

Hebrews 6:16-19 NKJV

For men indeed swear by the greater, and an oath for confirmation is for them an end of all dispute. Thus God, determining to show more abundantly to the heirs of promise the immutability of His counsel, confirmed it by an oath, that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we might have strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope set before us. This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters the Presence behind the veil,
